Kit Weber, a native of Olney, is a former member of the Boise Philharmonic and has performed with the Utah Symphony, the Minnesota Orchestra and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, among many other orchestras throughout the US. Kit studied music at Illinois State University and the University of Michigan (Go Blue!) - he currently performs on a Horn built for him by the American Horn builder Jacob Medlin.

With a career that ranges from symphony to opera, Broadway to chamber music, Jerry Steichen, accompanist, has established himself as one of America's most versatile conductors. Fresh from conducting the national tour revival of The King and I, Jerry returns to one of his favorite venues: performing chamber music with friends.
